Land at the port, with dock, we'll be in pretty good shape to meet the predicted demand for petroleum port's north edge. That would carry Cook Inlet."

Data processing

IBM 360/50 COMPUTER...

- COMMERCIAL APPLICATIONS
  - Payroll, Labor Distribution, Inventory Control, Post-Entry Remarks, Billing, Accounts Payable, General Ledger/Financial Reporting

- ENGINEERING AND CONSTRUCTION
  - COGO, CPM, Stress, Pressure

- PETROLEUM ENGINEERING
  - Well Proposals, Drilling, Pressure

- DIRECTIONAL WELL DATA
  - Well Completion, Completion Reports and Plots

- REMOTE BATCH PROCESSING
  - IMS 1107/168

- DIRECT LINE
  - 206-201-7800

- UNIVAC 1108

---

Thinking Heavy Equipment?

- WE CAN DELIVER
- 100% COMPLETELY BUILT

CATERPILLAR
- TRACTOR
  - 416C through 990

- TRAILERS
  - 389 through 893

- TANKERS
  - 14 through 980

- PORTABLE LOADERS
  - 22 through 980

---

PORT FACILITIES

- 115 South East Avenue
  - 907-224-5650

---

Anchorage Daily News

June 24, 1975

Lawmaking Trio Aisks Port Funds

Alaska's three lawmakers have a joint interest in the future of the U.S. Department of Commerce, which operates the Port of Anchorage's third terminal. Sens. Ted Stevens and Mike Gravel are lawmakers, and an Alaska corporation, is owned by the city and state.

Seattle- Alaska RO/RO Service

The Seattle- Alaska RO/RO Service has approved a proposal by the Port's director of real estate. Gray W. Lewis, to seize a container-loading area of Pt. 37, 38 and 40 with Sun Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, which is planning a million-dollar service between Seattle and Alaska.

Pacific Shipper

The port has proposed rental of $2,000,000 annually, which would be paid in cash. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate.

Steel Fabricators

The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska.

---

NEWS REVIEW

July 14, 1975

Seattle-Alaska RO/RO Service

The Seattle- Alaska RO/RO Service has approved a proposal by the Port's director of real estate. Gray W. Lewis, to seize a container-loading area of Pt. 37, 38 and 40 with Sun Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, which is planning a million-dollar service between Seattle and Alaska.

The port has proposed rental of $2,000,000 annually, which would be paid in cash. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate. The proposal was made by the port's director of real estate.

Steel Fabricators

The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska. The proposals call for the financing of a new facility to be constructed in Alaska.