

From left — Jim Malone, Ronnie Kirkman, Peter Spurgin.

STAFF — TAMS Anchorage

From left — Bill Bunselmeyer, Edna Byers, Ross Fenton.
Absent: Pam Fenton.

Below (from left) — William E. Bunselmeyer, Mayor Sullivan, Austin E. Brant Jr., William McKinney and Philip Perdichizzi.

Left: Three different port operations at Anchorage Marine Terminal: roll-on/roll-off ship, container ship and general cargo ship.

AWARD PRESENTATION

At a reception and dinner held on May 27, 1976 at the Anchorage Westwood Hotel, E. Erwin Davis, Director of the Department of Transportation of the Municipality of Anchorage, presented the Grand Conceptor Award certificate to the Mayor of Anchorage, George M. Sullivan.

Attending the dinner were the Chairman of the Port Commission, Arne Michaelsen, and members of the commission; members of the Anchorage Assembly; representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, Municipal and State agencies, the Air Force, the Corps of Engineers and the Coast Guard; and the contractors involved in the Anchorage Marine Terminal project. Ted Stevens, U.S. Senator from Alaska, Doug Weiford, Anchorage Municipality Manager, and William McKinney, Port Director, also attended.

Representing TAMS were Austin E. Brant Jr., Executive Vice President, and Philip Perdichizzi, Vice President of Tippetts-Abbett-McCarthy-Stratton, P.C. (Alaska), Tetsu Yasuda, Project Engineer, William S. Bunselmeyer, Resident Manager, Ross Fenton, Edna Byers, and Pamela Fenton. TAMS Consultant George T. Treadwell, who retired from TAMS in 1973 after more than 20 years of association with port development at Anchorage, was also present.

Top — Philip Perdichizzi presents a display panel of the prize-winning project to Mayor Sullivan.

Bottom — E. Erwin Davis presents the Grand Conceptor Award certificate to Mayor Sullivan.

Last page of brochure on following page.