

Anchorage Daily News/Alayne Renee Bickle

On-the-sea trainer

The M/V Hanbada, training ship of the Korea Maritime University, pulls into Anchorage Sunday to begin a four-day call here. Crew members will hold an open house on the ship, which is based in Pusan, South Korea, on Tuesday.

Anchorage Daily News/Jim Lavrakas

Student break

Crew members from the Korean training ship Hanbada walk to downtown from the Port of Anchorage Monday. The Korea Maritime University ship is in the second of a four-day stop in Anchorage. An open house on the vessel will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today.