MATSON STATEMENT REGARDING CONTINUITY OF OPERATIONS

ANCHORAGE (March 16, 2020) – Matson issued the following statement regarding the continuation of its service to Alaska during the COVID-19 pandemic:

Matson continues to operate its Alaska service schedule without interruption. Matson intends to maintain all service schedules as normal with two weekly northbound departures from Tacoma; two weekly arrivals in Anchorage; two weekly arrivals in Kodiak, and one weekly arrival in Dutch Harbor. Southbound schedules will also operate as normal.

Matson is committed to taking all appropriate steps to ensure the continuation of services, including the deployment of reserve vessels if necessary to continue meeting the needs of our customers.

Matson is monitoring developments closely and ensuring compliance with all United States Coast Guard and local, federal and international government reporting and prevention directives for maritime operations. Matson also has frequent and regular communication with the United States Coast Guard and the ports of Alaska, Kodiak and Dutch Harbor regarding commercial port operations.
